

Judicial Disciplinary Actions are written and provided by the Judicial Discipline and Disability Commission.
www.state.ar.us/jddc/decisions.html

July 16, 2004
 Honorable Jay T. Finch
 Circuit Judge, Nineteenth Judicial District West
 Administration Building
 203 East Central Street
 Bentonville, AR 72712

AMENDED LETTER OF ADMONISHMENT

RE: Complaint Nos. 02-436, 02-445 & 03-282

Dear Judge Finch:

During its May 21, 2004 meeting, the Judicial Discipline and Disability Commission decided to issue a Letter of Admonishment to you in connection with Complaint Numbers 02-436 and 02-445.

In the investigation of those complaints, the Commission found you violated the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Those two complaints, which were filed by anonymous complainants, alleged, inter alia: That on more than a few occasions, you were unable to control your temper both in and out of court; That you displayed an injudicious temperament towards some litigants, witnesses and attorneys who appeared before you as well as some court staff and that your injudicious temperament delayed or impaired the dispensation of justice in your courtroom and that you were rude and discourteous to other public officials and court staff.

In your appearances before the Commission, you acknowledged that your temper had been a problem in 2002, you admitted that some of your comments to and about certain public officials and court staff were inappropriate. Other allegations and information obtained during the Commission's investigation of these complaints were unrefuted.

The Judicial Discipline & Disability Commission found that some of your actions, including your admitted conduct, was in contravention of Canons 2(A), 3(A), 3(C)(1), and 4(A)(3) of the Code of Judicial Conduct. The Commission found that there was insufficient evidence to support the allegations contained in Complaint No. 03-282 (that your case coordinator was fired in improper retaliation) and dismissed that complaint.

For your aforementioned conduct in violating the Code of Judicial Conduct, it was the decision of the Commission that you be admonished. The Commission indulges the expectation that this conduct will not be repeated. This public admonition constitutes adequate discipline and no further action is warranted. This Commission action is public information.

For the Commission,
 James A. Badami
 Executive Director

Why?
www.arkansasfindalawyer.com

Well, that's easy. For one, the internet has all but replaced traditional avenues of finding information and services. Millions of people now do their research and shopping online. Because www.arkansasfindalawyer.com is an online directory designed to assist the public in selecting a lawyer, it's a great marketing strategy for members, one which provides instant, worldwide exposure.

Not only does someone else maintain your online listing, but it also allows you the flexibility to list as many or as few practice areas as you wish.

And at just $75 per year, it's a steal.

To join this Arkansas Bar Association sponsored directory, contact Barbara Tarkington at 501-375-4606, 800-609-5668 or btarkington@arkbar.com.